

STALLERGENES GREER PLC
SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

OUR COMMITMENT IN RESPECT OF COMBATTING SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Stallergenes Greer plc ("Stallergenes Greer") is committed to combatting slavery and human trafficking and taking appropriate steps to ensure that it, its affiliates and its suppliers have suitable procedures and practices in place to combat slavery and human trafficking.

Stallergenes Greer seeks to conduct its business with integrity and to the highest ethical, professional and legal standards.

Stallergenes Greer takes appropriate steps to help ensure that it complies with relevant employment laws in all jurisdictions in which it and its affiliates operate. It requires that the status of all its employees is checked before they are engaged, and all employees are themselves required to comply with all laws and regulations applicable to their employment.

Given the diverse geographic footprint of Stallergenes Greer and its affiliates worldwide, Stallergenes Greer uses reasonable endeavors to ensure that its suppliers comply with all laws and regulations applicable to their business, including laws and regulations in relation to slavery and human trafficking.

Stallergenes Greer recognises that slavery and human trafficking is a challenge for both governments and businesses. Stallergenes Greer's commitment to combatting slavery and human trafficking is an ongoing pledge and Stallergenes Greer will continue to consider how best to minimise the risk of human slavery and trafficking throughout its business.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Stallergenes Greer's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 December 2016. This statement was reviewed and approved by the board of directors on 29 March 2017.

STALLERGENES GREER PLC

Fereydoun Firouz
Chairman and CEO